

MAESA UPPER SCHOOL CHORAL FESTIVAL

On a blustery March 1st, under the threat of a major snow storm, five Mid-Atlantic Episcopal Upper School choral groups gathered at the Washington National Cathedral to perform a Choral Evensong together. St. Christopher's and St. Catherine's from Richmond, VA, St. Andrew's from Middletown, DE along with the National Cathedral School and St. Alban's of Washington, DC sounded heaven sent as they sang in unison under the direction of Michael McCarthy, Director of Music, Washington National Cathedral.

The students practiced together for two hours, then enjoyed a light snack and socializing, before their performance. It was an awe-inspiring communal event!

