

Grace Episcopal Day School Announces Appointment of Helen Marter As Interim Head of School

The Board of Governors of Grace Episcopal Day School in Silver Spring and Kensington, Maryland has announced the appointment of Helen Marter as Interim Head of School. Ms. Marter will replace Carol Franek, who served Grace for 20 years, the last ten as Head.

In making the announcement Friday, Hedrick Belin, Chair of the Grace Board of Governors, emphasized Marter's experience, and her strong cultural fit with the school community. Marter's most recent roles have included Interim Head of School at Agnes Irwin School outside Philadelphia and Head at the Laurel School in Ohio. She has experience as a Teacher, School Head, Dean of Students, Admissions Officer and Coach." We are pleased to have the benefit of her insights and experience," said Belin. "Marter will serve through the search for a new permanent head for the school, scheduled to conclude in June of 2011."

Grace Episcopal Day School serves over 200 students enrolled in its 3 year-old through 8th grade classes. Celebrating its 50th anniversary this year, Grace is dedicated to living its mission of providing every student the opportunity for academic excellence in a caring, nurturing, and moral environment that embraces diversity and promotes creativity, self-confidence, and service to others. For more information about Grace, please contact 301-585-3513.